

WOMAN OF RARE MENTAL POWERS

Miss Isabella Vandervall Wins
Honors as Student.

SCORES HIGHEST AVERAGE.

Graduates at Head of Class at the New York Medical College and Hospital For Women—Receives Appointment as Intern at Hospital For Women in Syracuse, N. Y.

By N. BARNETT DODSON.
East Orange, N. J.—Among the young women of the north, and particularly in New Jersey, who have won wide distinction in the high schools and colleges is Miss Isabella Vandervall of this town. From a child Miss Vandervall has shown unusual ability in every subject for study in all branches of the public and high school system which she has entered. Her career in the grammar and high schools here through her graduation from each is a bright chapter of intellectual ascendancy rarely found in the student life of a child of any race.

When Miss Isabella Vandervall and her sister, Irene, graduated from the East Orange high school with the class of 1910 an attempt was made to exclude them from participation in the graduating class social function. Of this unjust act the Newark (N. J.) Evening News in an editorial in which it also referred to the high honors won by Estella Gibbs of Hoboken, N. J., and a Mr. Johnson of the Jersey City (N. J.) high school, said:

"Instances of the same kind are not numerous, and yet they can be found in practically all the large cities of this state. If the colored pupils do not capture the highest honors as did those of Hoboken and Jersey City a goodly proportion of them prove to be energetic, studious, mentally capable and quite as competent to pursue the courses of study as are the white children. So far as public school education is concerned, there is no color line in New Jersey and no withholding of honors fairly won by industry and application."

"Judging from the recent action of the June graduating class of the East Orange high school in attempting to exclude the Misses Isabella and Irene Vandervall, members of the class, from participating in the class dances, it would seem that sentiment in favor of intelligence, honesty and high moral character has suddenly undergone a radical change."

"The young ladies in question are the daughters of Mr. James N. Vandervall, a well known and highly respected business man of East Orange. He is the owner of the Essex Steam Carpet Cleaning works and owns other valuable property besides."

Miss Vandervall was only sixteen when she graduated from the East Orange high school. Not being of eligible age to enter a medical college, she did postgraduate work at the high school in East Orange for one term. Miss Vandervall completed her medical course at the New York Medical College, New York city, in June, with high honors. She was awarded the prize for having maintained the highest efficiency of any student in her class during the entire course of four years. Her average was 97.8 per cent.

The graduation exercises of the New York Medical College and Hospital For Women were held in the Astor galleries of the Waldorf-Astoria. Miss Vandervall received her honors with the grace of modesty which has characterized her actions throughout her student career. She is the only woman of our race who has graduated from the New York Medical College and Hospital For Women during the fifty-two years of its existence. Not only did Miss Vandervall win the prize at the recent commencement, but she has been awarded a prize at the end of the term for the past three years and has also stood at the head of a class of ten women and was the youngest student in her class.

She has been appointed as an interne at the hospital for women and children at Syracuse, New York. Miss Vandervall entered upon her new duties at the hospital in Syracuse the first week in July. The whole race is proud of her notable achievements.

TUSKEGEE TRUSTEES MEET.

Dr. Booker T. Washington's Annual Report Reveals School's Great Work.
New York.—The annual meeting of the Tuskegee institute board of trustees was held recently at the rooms of the General Education Board, New York. Mr. William G. Wilcox of Wilcox, Peck & Hughes, treasurer of the investment committee, presided in the absence of Hon. Seth Low, chairman of the board of trustees.

Those present at the meeting were Mr. Julius Rosenwald of Sears, Roebuck & Co., Chicago; Mr. Frank Trumbull, chairman of the board of directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad; Mr. E. A. Bancroft, general counsel of the International Harvester company, Chicago; Mr. Charles E. Mason, Boston; Mr. C. W. Hare, editor Tuskegee News, Tuskegee, Ala.; Mr. R. O. Simpson, Furman, Ala.; Mr. William M. Scott of the Cutter Electrical company, Philadelphia, and the following additional trustees and officers of the institute—namely, Dr. Booker T. Washington, principal; Mr. Warren Logan, treasurer; Mr. Emmett J. Scott, secretary; Mr. Charles H. Gibson, chief accountant; Mr. A. J. Wilborn, Tuskegee, Ala.; Mr. R. R. Taylor, director of mechanical industries.

Invitations were extended to Hon. J. C. Napier, Nashville, Tenn.; Major R. R. Moton of the Hampton Institute, Virginia, and Mr. W. J. Edwards, principal of the Snow Hill Institute, Snow Hill, Ala., to sit with the trustees during their deliberations. Dr. Washington's annual report was the chief incident at the meeting. He reported an enrollment during the year of 1,537 students from thirty-two states and territories, ninety-five of these coming from nineteen foreign countries or colonies of foreign countries. Dr. Washington reported the total receipts during the year from all sources for current expenses, buildings and improvements, endowment fund and from undesignated legacies, a total of $379,708.83. The endowment fund of the school is now $1,970,214.

A particular reason for rejoicing at the meeting was a report made showing that practically $100,000 has been raised for the modern steam heating and power plant which was recently completed at Tuskegee at a cost of $274,000 in addition to the money also raised for current expenses. When the trustees met last February for their midwinter meeting at Tuskegee there was due to be raised to complete payment on the steam heating and power plant $97,520.

A systematic campaign was put under way to raise this money, and during the month of June the whole country had been divided into five parts and had been effectively canvassed. When the trustees met in June the report was made that the amount needed for the steam and power plant had been oversubscribed, two of the trustees alone raising their individual gifts of $10,000 to $12,500 each.

The budget for the next fiscal year calls for an expenditure of $291,567.

RELIGIOUS WORKERS SHOW SPIRIT OF BROTHERHOOD.

World's Christian Endeavor Society on Side of Golden Rule.

The Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch gives the following account of what happened at one session of the recent World's Christian Endeavor convention recently held in Chicago. It says: Moved by speeches of men prominent in church and business life of the south, 300 southern men and women, delegates to the World's Christian Endeavor convention, in session at Chicago, acknowledged brotherhood with the Negro race and determined to extend it to the hand of fellowship.

Out of this idea is to grow the southern extension committee of the Christian Endeavor, which the Rev. Ira Landreth of Nashville, Tenn., calls the beginning of the interdenominational union of the colored people.

"We are going to take the Christian Endeavor into the Negro churches," said Dr. Landreth, "organize new societies and help millions of blacks to enlightenment. God has placed at our door the greatest opportunity for Christian work that ever came to any missionaries anywhere."

"Until the men rise up and say, 'I will not kill,' nations will war with one another," according to Daniel A. Poling, citizenship superintendent of the United Society of the Christian Endeavor. He declared that neither arbitration treaties nor neutrality agreements will bring everlasting and universal peace.

"The message of the Christian Endeavor is patriotic," said Mr. Poling.

BOSTON HONORS PHILLIPS' MEMORY

Citizens Unveil Fine Statue of Noted Abolitionist.

PATRIOTIC EXERCISES HELD

With Music and Speeches by Eminent Men, Public Turns Out En Masse to Witness Event of National Interest. W. Monroe Trotter Speaks For Our Race.

Boston.—A few minutes before 6 o'clock on the afternoon of July 5 the veil fell from the $20,000 bronze statue of Wendell Phillips in the Public Garden, and a crowd of from 5,000 to 6,000 acclaimed with cheers and patriotic song Daniel Chester French's almost speaking memorial of Boston's famous orator and abolitionist.

As the sun was sinking behind rain clouds in the west little John C. Phillips, Jr., the great-grandnephew of Wendell Phillips, the man who declared that if he lived long enough he would make Boston streets too pure to bear the footsteps of a slave, pulled the cord releasing the mantle which for several weeks had veiled the statue. As the folds fell away from the figure of the great abolitionist "Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!" burst from a chorus of colored singers.

Fervent was the prayer of Rev. Montrose W. Thornton, pastor of the historic Charles Street church and also chairman of the executive committee of the local Equal Rights league branch; sterling and practical the tribute of the acting mayor, George W. Coleman, a man of Wendell Phillips' principles, as was every speaker.

Illuminating and forceful was the life story by Secretary William D. Brigham. Sweet and inspiring were the singing by the colored singers, led by Dr. Walter O. Taylor and J. Therman Jones, and the music of the brass band of Company L, Sixth regiment of Massachusetts militia. Picturesque and touching was the encomium by the only survivor of the New England abolitionists, Frank B. Sanborn, now eighty-three years old, still active, a coworker with Phillips. Earnest and unqualified was the praise by the spokesman for colored Americans, W. M. Trotter.

Fired with eloquence born of love was the eulogy of Ireland's friend and friend of all oppressed by Michael J. Jordan, son of O'Connell's island home; tuneful and noble the poem of the poet of the occasion, grandson of Phillips' party leader, bearing his name, William Lloyd Garrison. Every participant was an emulator of the "Prophet of Liberty, Champion of the Slave," while the colored women of the Woman's Relief corps held the colors.

The monument, a masterpiece by Daniel Chester French, the sculptor, represents the great abolitionist standing at a reading desk, his right hand resting upon the desk, his left outstretched and holding a bit of broken fetter. Upon the marble background, above the head of the statue, are the words, "Whether In Chains or In Laurels, Liberty Knows Nothing but Victory." On the pedestal, in front, are the words in raised bronze letters: WENDELL PHILLIPS.

BORN 1811.
PROPHET OF LIBERTY.
CHAMPION OF THE SLAVE.

On the reverse side of the background is this quotation from Phillips: "I love inexpressibly these streets of Boston, over whose pavements my mother held up tenderly my baby feet, and if God grants me time enough I will make them too pure to bear the footsteps of a slave."

The exercises were opened by Mr. William D. Brigham, secretary of the Wendell Phillips Memorial association, who introduced the acting mayor, George W. Coleman, president of the city council.

Mr. Coleman then introduced, in turn, four speakers, who presented a verbal panorama of Wendell Phillips' life. William D. Brigham spoke on "Morning—Youth and Vision." Franklin Benjamin Sanborn on "Noon—the Abolitionist Period." William Monroe Trotter on "Afternoon—Citizenship For the Colored American." and Michael J. Jordan "Evening—What Mr. Phillips Did For Ireland." Mr. Coleman, in introducing William Monroe Trotter said that nothing was so appropriate as for the colored race to have a spokesman in dedicating a monument to Wendell Phillips and that there could be no more fit representative than William Monroe Trotter.

Mr. Trotter said that Wendell Phillips was the originator of the north's policy of reconstruction and a pioneer advocate of the ballot for colored Americans. No man had done more for the cause of human rights, perhaps, than Wendell Phillips, save Charles Sumner. Wendell Phillips was among the first to announce emancipation as the purpose of the war and to urge that the people of color should be used as soldiers to help to save the Union.

These and others all contributed to the awakening of the judiciary to its duty on sound principles of justice, law and humanity and make for the glory of the greatest court in the world and a recognition to the duty it owed certain of its citizens and thus exemplify that right, "though crushed to earth, will rise again. The eternal God of years are here."

He was a pioneer in the movement for suffrage. He saw to it that slavery should be torn up by the roots and that as far as federal law was concerned every man, white and black, should have citizenship and suffrage. Wendell Phillips believed, as we do, that the greatest thing is human freedom, said Mr. Trotter, and it cannot be maintained without equality, and there can be no equality without the ballot.

CHICAGO'S BIG CELEBRATION.

State and Organization Days Named For Coming National Exposition.

By N. BARNETT DODSON.
Among the literary features for instruction and amusement in course of preparation for the national Lincoln jubilee and exposition to be held at the Coliseum in Chicago from Aug. 22 to Sept. 16 are pageants showing the condition of the race centuries ago and its advancement under freedom. There will be educational and religious congresses, song festivals, bulletins showing the numerical strength of the race and many works of art and invention. The commission has issued a beautifully illustrated periodical called the Lincoln Sentinel. It is a four page paper with photos of Lincoln, Grant, John A. Logan, Owen Lovejoy, Fred Douglass, Stephen A. Douglass, John M. Palmer and Cardinal Gibbons. The data in the Sentinel cover a wide range of subjects of race effort, struggle and achievement through the fifty years which have elapsed since its freedom.

Great interest is being shown by the various national organizations and the business men from the different states which will have exhibits at the exposition. For instance, Monday, Aug. 30, is designated as Indiana day, on which day large delegations of citizens of Indiana will be in attendance and act as guides to the other visitors in calling attention to the products of Indiana.

Wednesday, Sept. 8, will be national Baptist convention day. On this occasion the public will have the opportunity of witnessing the wonderful progress made by the Baptist denomination. Exhibits from the national Baptist publishing board at Nashville, Tenn., will be one of the chief attractions.

Saturday, Sept. 11, will be Mound Bayou (Miss.) day. The town of Mound Bayou was founded by Isaiah T. Montgomery, who was its first mayor and who is still one of the town's most noted men. The municipal government is run by colored men. There are an oil mill, postoffice, telegraph office, bank, school and church edifices, all the product of the brain of members of our race. The city authorities at Chicago are giving substantial support to the coming exposition, and the whole affair now has the appearance of a mammoth national semicentennial celebration.

PERRY ON LAW ENFORCEMENT

Brooklyn Attorney Lauds Federal Supreme Court's Recent Decision.

Brooklyn.—Rufus Lewis Perry, acknowledged by the legal profession in Greater New York to be one of the most learned men of the profession, makes the following comment on the recent United States supreme court decision in the grandfather clause in the laws of Maryland and Oklahoma. Attorney Perry says:

By the decision of the United States supreme court in the Maryland and Oklahoma cases the man of color has come into his own again; the race has been advanced to its constitutional rights in the states south of the Mason and Dixon line. Prejudice has received its deserved rebuke and constitutional rights acknowledged. The cry of "Watchman, what of the night?" has for its answer, "All is well."

Political assemblies have been taught that they cannot legislate a destruction of the fifteenth amendment of the constitution, nor can local judicial decree tarnish the glory of its existence. By sound principles of law the United States has decreed we have a republic at last. The agents who worked for this good do not exist in the national atmosphere alone, but rather the international.

The season of discontent, the European war and its effect on us; the social unrest, the progress of the race in thought and genius and its rise and progress in the last fifty years; the necessity of a common understanding between the races, the awakening of a sense of justice; foreign criticism against the unjust, unholly and uncivilized political treatment of the citizen of color and the demands of civilization.

These and others all contributed to the awakening of the judiciary to its duty on sound principles of justice, law and humanity and make for the glory of the greatest court in the world and a recognition to the duty it owed certain of its citizens and thus exemplify that right, "though crushed to earth, will rise again. The eternal God of years are here."

RANKIN'S SUPERIOR HAIR DRESSING AND BEAUTIFIER. "A Blessing on Your Head" in More Ways Than One.

First, it is a real hair beautifier—not a common formula—not a dye—not a cure for hair diseases—but a refined, fragrant beautifier, used by women of culture everywhere.

Somebody has said that a woman's teeth are milestones indicating her age, but a far more important feature indicative of years is the hair. Many a woman has kept her youthful appearance long past middle life because of proper care of the hair, and in this care the first considerations are absolute cleanliness and a choice of Superior Hair Dressing and Beautifier, An Excellent Brilliantine.

"INSTANTO"

Removes Hair Instantly. Hair on face, neck, shoulders or under arms can be removed in a minute with "Instanto", the sanitary liquid. A single application and the hair vanishes. All you can see is the skin, smooth and clear. The hair will not return for a long time, and when it finally does reappear, it will be softer and finer than before, so that after another simple application it will disappear for a still longer period. "Instanto" actually retards future hair growths. All other methods, such as shaving, singeing, etc., promote hair growth and make it come back coarser and thicker than before. This is also true of pastes and powdered depilatories which require scraping and irritate the skin. So highly antiseptic are the ingredients of "Instanto" that many physicians use them for removing hair before operations.

For years thousands of women have used "Instanto" to remove all hair blemishes. Today, since the introduction of low-cut gowns and sheer blouses more use is than ever before. Price 5c Box, 25c Bottle. RANKIN MFG. COMPANY

One month of this real hair culture will do wonders for your hair.

If troubled with dandruff (which makes the scalp itch or feel uncomfortable) or if your hair falls out, Rankin's Tonic will prove "A Blessing on Your Head."

EQUAL RIGHTS IN FRANCE.

The Diagne Bill Gives Military Privileges to All Aliens.

Paris.—The chamber of deputies in this city has three colored deputies representing the colonies from which they are sent by the suffrage of their fellow citizens. A dispatch from Paris recently says that the race and color question that was raised in the French chamber of deputies by the bill of the Negro deputy, M. Diagne, representing Senegal, providing for the extension of general compulsory military service in France to colonial municipalities whose inhabitants enjoy French citizenship, was presented in numerous new lights and complications at the session of the chamber.

The question of how to apportion a pension in cases of polygamist Senegalese leaving several widows proved a poser for the deputies. The minister of war and the military committee of the chamber approved the general provisions of the Diagne bill, which provide for the incorporation with the regular French forces of the Senegalese subject to compulsory service. The action of the committee was immediately attacked by Deputy La-broue, who pictured the difficulties arising from the presence in the French army of soldiers unable to speak French and of different religion and social customs.

Deputy Labroue also raised the question of confusion in the payment of pensions to the widows of polygamist Senegalese. He proposed an amendment providing for the incorporation of such troops in native regiments entitled to pensions and the other rights of French citizens. The speaker was frequently interrupted by protests from the Negro Deputies Diagne, Lagrosilliere of Martinique and Candace and Bolsneuf of Guadeloupe, Lagrosilliere crying amid frantic applause, "Our fellow citizens ask only to be allowed to serve the mother country, for which they already have poured out their blood."

Paul Deschanel, president of the chamber, was forced to quell the tumult by declaring that the entire chamber felt "the same respect and the same love for all, whatever their race or religion, who are fighting under the folds of the tricolor flag." Deputy Labroue insisted on the special regiments for Senegalese who do not speak French. Deputy Bolsneuf interrupted, crying, "I then demand a special regiment for Frenchmen unable to read and write."

Deputy Diagne then obtained the floor and made an eloquent appeal on behalf of the blacks, reviewing the part they had played in conquering the French colonial empire. "For eleven months the Senegalese have demanded to be allowed to serve France," he said; "if they haven't been permitted to do so it is the fault of the minister of war."

Deputy Diagne said that the widows of soldiers ought to receive pensions even when there were several, but he added: "Native soldiers are not as rich as the average French soldier, who is also poor and therefore has only one wife. Polygamy is a luxury of wealth."
Alexandre Millerand, minister of war, said the Diagne bill seemed to meet the wishes of a majority of the colonials and urged its passage. The bill was passed without change.

The idea of having the representa-

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IV.—Third Quarter, For July 25, 1915.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, 1 Kings viii, 22-30. Memory Verses, 23, 24—Golden Text, Isa. lvi, 7—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In some respects the ark of Noah, the tabernacle of Moses and the temple of Solomon were the three most remarkable buildings in the history of the world, for God Himself was the sole designer of each, and each was intensely typical of things to come concerning the Saviour, salvation and the kingdom. The great truths of our redemption have been made more plain to me by tabernacle studies than in any other way, and I most earnestly commend to all readers a little book, costing only 25 cents, entitled "The Tabernacle" or "The Gospel According to Moses," by George Rodgers. (Am. S. S. Union, 1816 Chestnut, Philadelphia.) The spiritual lessons from the temple are very similar, but with more of the kingdom outlook.

Solomon began to build the temple 480 years after the Exodus (1 Kings vi, 1). If you add up the figures in Acts xiii, covering this period, you will make it 573, but if you subtract the 93 years of the oppressions of all Israel in the days of the Judges, the accounts will agree perfectly. Out of fellowship with God means lost time, whether with a nation or an individual (Num. vi, 12; Job xxxiv, 20). Solomon's temple was finished in the eleventh year of his reign, and it was plundered just thirty-four years after, in the fifth year of Rehoboam (1 Kings vi, 37, 38; xiv, 25, 26). This was just the time between the birth of the Messiah, the true temple, and His death. Zerubbabel built the second temple after the return from Babylon. At the time of Christ's ministry Herod had been rebuilding that temple forty-six years (John ii, 20). The last eight chapters of Ezekiel tell of a temple yet to be built when Israel shall be restored. Both tabernacle and temple were dwelling places for God in the midst of Israel. God was in Christ. Every true believer is now His temple (1 Cor. vi, 19, 20). The church, His body, now being built, is the temple in which we are for the present most interested (Eph. ii, 19-22). All the materials for tabernacle and temple were willing offerings (Ex. xxv, 2; xxxv, 20; 1 Chron. xxix, 3, 9, 17). Christ gave Himself willingly for us (Heb. x, 5-9; John vi, 38). We must be willing offerings, keeping nothing back.

Remember the only foundation (1 Chron. iii, 1) spoken of in a previous lesson, the great atonement suggested by Moriah and Ornan's threshing floor and the silver sockets of the tabernacle boards and see 1 Cor. iii, 11. If we are truly in Christ we are living stones in the temple now being built (1 Pet. ii, 5), but as in the temple of our lesson every stone was made ready in the quarry or somewhere for its particular place in the building (1 Kings vi, 7), so, while the believer is a stone by the precious blood of Christ, we are being made fit for our places in the building by the daily training here. When the temple was finished and the ark set in its place in the holy of holies the glory of the Lord filled the house, so that the priests could not stand to minister (1 Kings viii, 4-11). It is our privilege thus to be Spirit filled, so that self may find no place. Our special lesson verses are a little part of Solomon's great prayer at the dedication of the temple, in which he glorified God, saying, "Lord God of Israel, there is no God like Thee. . . who keep covenant and mercy with Thy servants that walk before Thee with all their heart" (xxiii). He also praised God for fulfilling His word to David and asked Him to continue to do so (verses 24, 26). Then he asked the Lord that His eyes might be open night and day toward the house he had built for His name (verses 27-30).

He presented seven separate petitions concerning different matters, saying each time "Hear Thou in Heaven" or "Hear Thou in Heaven Thy dwelling place" (verses 30, 32, 34, 36, 39, 43, 45, 49). He pleaded that He would do this for Israel, as His inheritance, whom He had separated from among all the people of the earth, and that He would maintain their cause at all times, as the matter might require, or, as in the margin, the thing of a day in his day (verses 51, 53, 59). This expression is found also in the story of the manna (Ex. xvi, 4, margin) and elsewhere, reminding us that His care is sure day by day as He has taught us to pray. His desire was "that all the people of the earth may know that the Lord is God and that there is none else" (verse 60). So it was also with Joshua and David and Ezekiel (Josh. iv, 24; 1 Sam. xvii, 46; 1 Kings xix, 19), and nothing less should be our desire.

Before he began to build he said, "The Lord my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent" (chapter v, 4), and now he says, "Blessed be the Lord, that hath given rest unto His people Israel; . . . there hath not failed one word of all His good promise, which He promised by the hand of Moses, His servant" (verse 56). So also is it written in Josh. xli, 45; xxiii, 14, and so it will be until the kingdom comes and we shall find that not one word has failed of all that God has spoken. He shall not fail, nor be discouraged, and He shall see of the travail of His soul and be satisfied.

FRONT LINE WORK FOR THE MASSES

Some Good Results Obtained In North Carolina.

INFLUENCE OF THE LEADERS

Number of Persons Interested in Improving Conditions in Rural District During the Past Year Is Encouraging—How Professor Wesley Jones Worked His Way to Prominence.

Burgaw, N. C.—The number of men and women of the race in this section of the state who are doing real constructive work among our people in the rural districts, towns and villages increases from year to year. They are persons of Christian character and influence who make great sacrifice of time, talent and such means as they have to assist the more unfortunate among them to better their condition. During the past year much has been accomplished in this direction through the various organizations and by the personal efforts of individuals who are doing real front line work among the masses.

Among the leaders in such constructive work is Professor Wesley Jones of this town. Although Mr. Jones is modest and very unassuming, he is one of the prominent factors in the grand lodge of Free and Ancient Accepted Masons of the jurisdiction of North Carolina. He is widely known in fraternal and religious circles and bears the esteem and respect of all classes in his home town and in the rural districts adjacent to Burgaw.

Adverse circumstances have made many men like Professor Jones become pillars in the civic, economic, educational and religious movements of our people in the south. In New Hanover county, where Professor Jones was born, there is a large number of successful farmers and business men who had to struggle at an early age because of the death of one or both parents and who were trained by a godparent like the one who inspired Professor Jones by her life to the extent that he was converted at the age of seven and eventually has become one of the leading laymen among the Baptist denominations of this state. For seventeen years he held the position of church clerk and gained the unique distinction of being a zealous worker in the Sunday school, having missed only one Sunday in attendance in twenty years.

Like this interesting character, many of our progressive men had to educate and support five or more sisters and a widowed mother. "This is a fine tribute to the class of Afro-Americans who are opening up larger opportunities for our young people. With these responsibilities upon him young Mr. Jones finally entered Whitin Normal school at Lumberton, N. C., and each year when he returned home from this institution he succeeded in getting a higher grade teacher's certificate until he held a first grade one, and yet he pursued his studies with his characteristic ardor and taught school for twenty-four years and inspired hundreds of young men and women who have purchased fertile farms and built comfortable homes for themselves.

He owns three of the leading business brick buildings in this town and has a pressing establishment, with steam cleaning and pressing machines, and a well appointed barber shop, and he also conducts a restaurant. He has a large farm and 164 acres of fine forest land.

Professor Jones is a strong supporter of the Burgaw Normal and Industrial school here and is financial agent of the Northeast Cape Fear Baptist Sunday school convention, which is an effective agency at work for the uplift of the race.

Owing to her exceptional qualities and business tact the influential wife of Professor Jones has been quite a factor in his useful career, and these two persons are doing much in helping the young Afro-American to find his opportunities by thrift and industry.

Get Good Impression of Your Town by Reading Home Newspaper

PATRONIZE YOUR HOME NEWSPAPER!

"Knowledge is power," the bard tells us. No one can hope to become a USEFUL CITIZEN and an INFLUENTIAL MEMBER of a community without first familiarizing himself with the things that are going on about town. To be a BOOSTER one must KNOW THINGS.

ALL GOOD CITIZENS ARE FAMILIAR WITH THE DETAILS OF THE TOWN AND COUNTY GOVERNMENT. THEY ARE AWARE OF CONCERNED EFFORTS BEING MADE BY THE BOARD OF TRADE TO SECURE NEW ENTERPRISES, TO INDUCE FOREIGN CAPITAL TO INVEST IN THE CITY AND TO START SMALL MANUFACTURING PLANTS—THOSE THAT EMPLOY SKILLED LABOR, PAY GOOD WAGES AND BRING USEFUL CITIZENS TO TOWN.

ALL GOOD CITIZENS must be aware of the erection of new homes. They must know of all real estate transactions—the buyer, the seller and the price. They must be able to show the stranger the value of real estate in his home town. To be a useful citizen one must take part in all efforts to create a GOOD IMPRESSION of the town in the outside world. One must lend a helping hand to movements which will better the town from an industrial, civic, social and educational standpoint.

THERE IS BUT ONE WAY TO GAIN THE NECESSARY INFORMATION TO BECOME A USEFUL CITIZEN. THAT IS BY READING THE NEWSPAPER. IT IS THE DUTY OF EACH NEWSPAPER TO WORK FOR THE BETTERMENT OF THE COMMUNITY AS A WHOLE. THIS DUTY IS LARGELY PERFORMED BY THE DISTRIBUTION OF USEFUL INFORMATION TO THE CITIZENS.

From the home paper one learns of new enterprises, of capital invested, of land sales, of the arrival of new citizens, of the enlargement of this or that corporation, of improvements made by the town council or by the county authorities and of all things tending to make this a BETTER PLACE TO LIVE IN.

CAN YOU AFFORD TO BE WITHOUT THE HOME PAPER, WHICH COSTS BUT A FEW CENTS A WEEK?

RELIGIOUS WORKERS SHOW SPIRIT OF BROTHERHOOD.

"The patriotism of Christian Endeavor is practical, and addresses itself to the foes of the state.

"These foes are intemperance and war. Against them the young people's movement hurls the flower of the world, the youth of the kingdom. Christian Endeavor can and will enroll millions of young people from all sects, colors and nationalities in the peace union which was the vision of President Clark. These millions will proclaim the fulfillment of the sixth commandment. These will declare 'I will not kill.'"

For the benefit of those who may not know it, we wish to state that the Christian Endeavor society work is no new thing to the colored people. The work of the organization is strong in the A. M. E. and A. M. E. Zion churches and some other denominations. It is not so popular with the Baptist denomination. The chief religious feature among Baptists, aside from the church and Sunday school for young people, is the Baptist young people's union.
